HOT TREND GRAND LUXURY

Render walls with attributes of disparate materials as finishes, metals and modules fuse together to create interesting blends that impart a distinct demeanour

Get insights into the world of Luxury with this living room designed by Ajay Arya of A Square Designs. No stones have been left unturned to bedeck this double height space with grandeur and contemporary indulgence. The mirror wall panelling with intricate wooden detailing and brass inserts steals the show along with the majestic chandelier by Berovier & Toso. Flooring in Carré de France marble from France establishes a strong ground to accommodate signature elements like the custom created furniture pieces, an exquisite ensemble coffee table with hints of golden accents and diffused lighting.
